NEW BROADWAY MUSICAL "REDWOOD"

Tony winner Idina Menzel depicts a woman driven to the solace of a redwood forest after a heartbreaking loss. Through the kindness of strangers & a new perspective, she finds catharsis & rediscovers the strength to carry on. Redwood is an "emotionally charged & heart-healing" (Variety) Broadway musical experience unlike any before. (July 29 at 7p)

NEW BROADWAY MUSICAL
"JUST IN TIME"

Tony winner Jonathan Groff returns to Broadway as Bobby Darin in a musical immersing you in an intimate, swinging nightclub complete with a big band, a stellar cast, & Bobby Darin's iconic hits, like Beyond the Sea, Dream Lover, & Mack the Knife. (July 30 at 8p)

"SARGENT & PARIS" AT THE MET

Coinciding with the 100th anniversary of John Singer Sargent's death, Sargent & Paris at the Metropolitan Museum of Art includes approx. 100 works of art—from preparatory sketches to daring masterpieces to his iconic Madame X. Follow the artist's rapid rise from his arrival in Paris as an 18-year-old art student through his scandalous success at the Paris Salon in the mid-1880s.

VERMEER'S LOVE LETTERS at the Frick Collection

Vermeer's Love Letters, pairs the Frick's Mistress & Maid with loans from the Rijksmuseum & the National Gallery of Ireland causing you to ponder Vermeer's treatment of the letter theme & his depiction of women of different social classes.
